

An example of a Network

The town of 'Anywhere'

The people above are what we call a NETWORK. They all live quite close to each other and will meet up regularly to do things together or in small groups. Hopefully some of them will become good friends and share things as well as support each other. The staff member for this NETWORK live here too!